SENATOR MILLS: Is that in the record, that vote?

CLERK: We can put it in the record. It won't be, otherwise. Did you want it record? Okay.

PRESIDENT: All right. We are on Final Reading. Please read LB 491, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: LB 491 introduced by Senator Mills, 44th District. Read on Final Reading.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 491 pass? Record your vote. Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: Record vote read. See page 1117, Journal. 15 ayes, 28 nays, 6 not voting.

PRESIDENT: LB 491 fails to pass. That completes Final Reading. We go to Select File. LB 764. Senator Dworak.

SENATOR DWORAK: Mr. President, I move that LB 764 be advanced to E & R for engrossment.

PRESIDENT: Discussion.

CLERK: Wait a minute. What are we doing?

PRESIDENT: 764 on Select. Do you have anything?

CLERK: Mr. President, the amendments on 764 have been adopted. There is a motion now to amend offered by Senator Stull which was laid over from last week. It is found on page 1013 of the Legislative Journal. Read amendment.

PRESIDENT: Before we commence on this, Senator Dworak does have a relative under the South balcony, Marie Trainor. We also are very happy to join with Senator Wiltse in the celebration of his birthday, which I understand is today. Is that correct, Senator? What. Well, you look so surprised. I am not going to make the same mistake I made with Senator Moylan the other day but Happy Birthday anyway and my apologies to you, Senator Moylan. Best wishes, Senator.

SENATOR DWORAK: What page is that amendment, Vince, on 764? 1013.

PRESIDENT: All right. The Chair recognizes Senator Stull.

SENATOR STULL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, what this amendment would do, it would reinsert the stricken matter on page 2, in section 1 of the bill and the matter that was stricken out provided that the next of kin of the decedent may for religious, emotional or other reasons revoke such donations by notification to the donee. Now back several sessions ago Senator Carstens from Beatrice had this bill and I offered this amendment to get this material into the statute
